General Information

Fall Leadership Conference Description

Colorado CTSOs and TRI Leadership Resources are ready and motivated to guide CTSO members to reate their future, travel to their peaks through different trails and paths. Kick off the year through a high energy leadership conference to help promote success in your chapter!

The conference will show new members possibilities, enhance returning members' skills and elevate members to new heights! Encourage your students to venture outside of base camp and attend the Colorado CTSO Fall Leadership Conference.

While attending the Colorado Fall Leadership Conference, CTSO students will have the opportunity to plan their hike to the top by selecting Leadership Sessions and listening to a motivational keynote.

Activities at the conference will include personal and professional development workshops, competitive events and a motivational keynote.

Dress Code

Members are expected to display a professional image at all functions. Members should always be respectful to administrators, exhibitors, parents, advisers and other members. Advisers will ensure that students look professional and in appropriate attire at all times. However, activities are a part of the Colorado Fall Leadership Conference and the chance to showcase our CTSOs.

Activity	Student Attire
Colorado CTSO Fall Leadership Conference	Casual Attire: Jeans and CTSO T-shirt (or other nice shirt) preferred. Longer-length shorts (no short shorts), neat jeans, collared shirts, sweat shirts, appropriate T-shirts and casual footwear.

**Advisers and guests are encouraged to follow the dress code.

Inappropriate Attire

The following should not be worn to any activity:

- Clothing and accessories which are sexually suggestive, which advertise drugs, alcohol or tobacco products or display profanity
- See-through, tight fitting, spaghetti straps, strapless, extremely short or low-cut blouses/tops/dresses/skirts
- Pants or skirts that are worn below the hip bone; no undergarments may be showing
- Spandex, leggings, stirrup pants, leotards, short shorts, cutoffs or pajamas. If leggings are worn, shorts/skirt/dress must be an appropriate length over the leggings.
- Clothing which is stained, torn or ripped
- Bare feet

Release Forms

All members must have completed forms (Medical Release and Verification Forms) on file prior to the beginning of the conference. Keep the release forms with you, and complete the Certification Form to turn in at registration.

Special Accommodations

For members that require special accommodations, complete the “Notes” portion in the registration system. Example reasons that students may need special accommodations would include wheelchair access or interpreter services or food allergies or IEP determined accommodations.

Adviser Meeting

Advisers will meet for CTSO updates and networking during workshop sessions.

Packing List

- Writing Utensil
- Positive attitude!

Penny Wars!

The following events are available at this year's Fall Leadership Conference:

CTSO Competitions

- Penny wars – each CTSO will have a Jar. Throughout the week, students will place coins and bills in each other's jar. The goal is to have the most pennies at the end (positive) points and the least number of dollars/silver coins (negative points).

Leadership Sessions

Various Leadership Sessions (workshops) will be provided. Sessions may include, but are not limited to membership, chapter activities, state and national programs, public relations, adviser resources, team building, etc. Members have the opportunity to choose their workshops. Once a workshop is full, students will need to choose another workshop to attend. It's recommended that attendees from a school split up to attend as many workshops as possible.

Session topics include:

1. 5 Tools Every Chapter Officer Needs to Master to Lead
2. 5 Tools Every Chapter Member Needs to Master to Lead

3. Pressed, Polished, Professional
4. Business is the “Pits” (Running Meetings)
5. In vs. Involved (Community Service)
6. Leader Hacks: 10 ways to make the Ordinary, Extraordinary
7. Today is You Day for an Awesome Resume
8. GNAP and OTIS (Professional Introductions)
9. Geared Up for College
10. Messages that Matter
11. 10 things people do that other’s wish they didn’t
12. 2 Ears, 1 Mouth

FAQs

Q: In the past, we’ve had to select up to 5 students for an officer track. When and where is that happening this year?

A: This year, we encourage your students to find their own peak. Attendees will have the opportunity to attend any of the sessions to create their own learning outcomes. Session topics will be announced prior to the conference to assist in creating their own adventure!

Q: I have submitted my registration already, but I need to add students. How do I make this happen?

A: Please contact lauren.wojcik@cccs.edu (HOSA State Advisor) and we will tell you the next steps.

Q: I’m confused. Where should I send payment?

A: Checks should be made out to Colorado FBLA and sent to Colorado FBLA, 9101 E Lowry Blvd, Denver, CO 80230. A PayPal link will also be available through the confirmation invoice received after registering.

Q: We are a school and tax-exempt, so we cannot pay the tax on the PayPal link.

A: The 4% tax is a convenience fee. Unfortunately, PayPal only has an option to add a fee that shows up as tax. But, this is not a tax, it is a convenience fee for using credit card as a payment.

Q: We need Colorado FBLA’s W-9 to issue a check.

A: Colorado FBLA W-9 can be found online at Colorado FBLA’s Website.

HOSA Code of Conduct

The purpose of the Code of Conduct is to ensure that HOSA members who attend a conference are aware of expected behavior. It is the adviser's responsibility to discuss the form with the members and stress the importance of abiding by the rules. Colorado HOSA is proud of its reputation and encourages advisers to closely monitor students at all conferences. Advisers must have a signed Code of Conduct in their possession at all HOSA activities and must submit a Certification Form certifying that all members have read and signed the Verification Form.

CONDUCT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR COLORADO HOSA

The following conduct policies reflect minimum behavioral standards for Colorado HOSA members. The policies are in effect for all delegates who are attending any Local, State or National HOSA function. The term "delegate" shall mean any HOSA member.

- Defacing of public property—any damage to or loss of property or furnishings of the properties being utilized for meeting purposes will be paid for by the individual or chapter responsible.
- Delegates shall keep their adult advisers informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
- Delegates will not be allowed to leave the conference site at any time without adult supervision.
- Members will be prohibited from participation without local supervision provided by the chapter or school. For the National Leadership Conference a designated local adviser or parent will be expected to accompany the participants.
- Delegates shall not use their own cars or ride in cars belonging to others during the conference unless accompanied by an adviser or other responsible adult.
- Alcoholic beverages and controlled or illegal substances (drugs) of any form are not allowed. These items must not be used or possessed at any time, or under any circumstances. Use or possession of such substances may subject the delegate to criminal prosecution.
- Use of tobacco in any form by an HOSA member is prohibited.
- Participants will NOT be admitted to conference activities and competitive events if in violation of the dress code. Furthermore, competitors will not walk on stage during awards sessions if observed violating the dress code.
- Observe the curfews as listed in the conference program. Curfew is defined as being in your own assigned room by the designated hour.
- Members of the opposite sex are not allowed in sleeping rooms in hotels or motels unless the door is WIDE OPEN or the chapter adviser or responsible adult is present in the room.
- Colorado HOSA photographers and videographers will be taking photos and videos throughout the conference for use in any manner HOSA deems appropriate including, but not limited to, publishing in HOSA publications, on the HOSA website, and in connection with competitive performance events. By attending the conference, you grant HOSA the right, without approval, to photograph, record, use, and edit your photograph, video, image, likeness, appearance, performance, and any other indicia of identity, in any format whatsoever, and to publish, disseminate, exhibit, publicly display, give, sell, and/or transfer the same in any and all forms of media or distribution now known or hereafter discovered or developed (including, but not limited to, print media, Internet, Web casting, video streaming, television or radio), for the use of HOSA, its affiliates, or any individual, organization, Health Science, publication, network or other third party, in perpetuity, without payment or any consideration.

DISREGARDING OR VIOLATING THE CODE OF CONDUCT

Delegates who disregard or violate this code will be subject to disciplinary action, including, but not limited to, competitive event disqualification, forfeiture of privileges to attend further events, confinement to your hotel room, dismissal from the conference, and being sent home at your own expense. Parents and/or guardians will be notified and HOSA reserves the right to notify law enforcement. Any Code of Conduct violation must be brought to the attention of the state adviser prior to the conclusion of the conference.

One purpose of this form is to show that the parent(s)/guardian(s) grant permission for the student to attend the conference. It also allows for emergency medical treatment if a parent/guardian cannot be reached. The adviser must have in his/her possession an Authorization/Medical Release Form for each dues paid member dated for the entire current school year. Also, a separate medical release form is required for each adviser and guest attending each function.
